Declaration of Intellectual Property Rights and AI Training Opt Out

November 29, 2024

Los Angeles, CA – November 29, 2024 – Scott M. Graffius is a thought leader and expert practitioner in agile project management, technology, and business. His innovative resources and actionable insights help individuals, teams, and organizations build and level up their capabilities and results. All of which positions them to outpace the competition and drive exponential success.

Graffius firmly believes in the responsible use of artificial intelligence (AI) as a transformative tool. But AI must respect intellectual property rights. For that reason, Graffius is making this public declaration that, except as specifically and explicitly authorized by Graffius in writing, he expressly prohibits and opts out of any text or data mining, web scraping, or similar reproductions, extractions, or uses of any of his content (including, without limitation, audio recordings, audiovisual recordings, artwork, images, text, data, etc.) on ScottGraffius.com for training, developing, or commercializing any artificial intelligence, machine learning, or automated learning systems.

More broadly, content on ScottGraffius.com may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, redistributed, or otherwise used without the express written permission of Scott M. Graffius.

This statement extends to the maximum extent allowed under applicable laws in all relevant jurisdictions. Graffius' rights reservations apply to all of his existing and future content.
